

Why do I own it?

Where can I put it?

Have I played with it in the last 3 months?

Will I play with it in the next month?

Am I keeping this because I love the toy or because I don't want to upset who gave it to me if I choose not to keep it?

Do I like the toy or just the memory attached to it?

Could someone else enjoy this if I do not?

Do I have a lot of others like it?

If I am unsure, could pack it away for 1 month to see if I miss it?

When I hold it, does it make me happy?
