

Why do I own it?

Where can I put it?

Have I used with it in the last 3 months?

Will I use it in the next month?

Am I keeping this because I love/enjoy/use it or because I don't want to upset who gave it to me if I choose not to keep it?

Do I like the item or just the memory attached to it?

Could someone else enjoy this if I do not?

Do I have a lot of others like it?

If I am unsure, could pack it away for 1 month to see if I miss it?

Can I display it or honor it in some way?

When I hold it, does it make me happy?
